

The St. Louis Classical Guitar Society is now accepting applications for the position of Executive Director.
posted December 2, 2016

To make application, please submit your resume and cover letter explaining your interest in the position and specific qualifications to admin@guitarstlouis.net
The subject line in your email needs to read Application.
(And only the word Application)

The Guitar Society promotes and fosters an understanding and appreciation of music for the classical guitar. Key programs include an acclaimed International Concert Season and an Educational Program serving schools throughout the region. A well established and growing organization, it is the third-oldest guitar society in the United States.

The successful candidate will be able to demonstrate the ability to accept management of the day to day operations of the organization, including the key areas of

- (1) financial management in accordance with the Board-approved budget
- (2) cash flow management
- (3) supervision of all other employees
- (4) ensuring success of program deliverables
- (5) handling communications with Society partners, program co-sponsors, the communities we serve, and the general public and
- (6) working closely with Board leadership, Society committees, and other volunteers.

In addition, the successful candidate will demonstrate the potential to work in partnership with the retiring Executive Director in preparation for assuming artistic, educational, and financial development responsibilities.

The starting salary will be $30,000 - $40,000, depending on experience.

To make application, please submit your resume and cover letter explaining your interest in the position and specific qualifications to admin@guitarstlouis.net
The subject line in your email needs to read Application.
(And only the word Application)